

I support the petition to require VRS interoperability because I am forced to use my provider's relay service which is always busy. I don't have this problem with TDD relay services.